part of

The Great American Cleanup™

March 1-May 31, 2009

Have you signed up to help clean up California with Keep California Beautiful and The Great American Cleanup™ yet?

Join your neighbors and friends!

Keep California Beautiful is looking for volunteers to help clean up California by participating in the largest clean up and beautification program in the state and the country!

What is The Great California Clean Up?

Keep California Beautiful, in concert with Keep America Beautiful's Great American Cleanup™, sponsors hundreds of clean up, recycling, and beautification projects throughout the state designed to clean up California's public lands, neighborhoods, streets, highways, rivers, beaches, parks and recreation areas. VOLUNTEER!!! We need your help.

Who is Keep California Beautiful?

Keep California Beautiful (KCB) is a nonprofit environmental organization dedicated to encouraging grassroots responsibility for California's environment. KCB believes "The Efforts of One Result in the Power of Many." Individuals can MAKE A DIFFERENCE in their own community. KCB provides FREE resources such as trash bags, gloves, flower seeds and volunteer incentives to individuals, community groups, and organizations willing to volunteer for community clean up's, recycling, and beautification projects.

Who can participate?

Anyone! Adults, kids, civic groups, high school and college students, girl and boy scouts and community organizations ALL can help collect trash and recyclables from parks, vacant lots, streets, trails, roadways, recreational areas, beaches or lagoons. You can even plant a tree or garden! Remember, KCB will provide resources free of charge.

How can I get involved?

Identify a location in your community that needs help, or contact KCB to find out about projects already scheduled for your area. KCB can be reached a 916-368-9301 or 1-800-CLEANCA. More information can be found at WWW.KEEPCALIFORNIABEAUTIFUL.ORG
